Dear Ms. Arroyo,

Thank you for your email. I apologize for any inconvenience that I may cause as a pro se litigant, but I hope that you can understand that I am anxious to be in compliance with court orders. I have received notice of hearing on this matter at 9am today, which is filed with the Clerk. Can you please provide confirmation that this matter will not be heard at 9am before Judge Johnson or another judge hearing cases on calendar 23. Rather, I understand from your note, this matter will be heard by Judge Pinzur-Rosenberg at 11:30am, on calendar 12. Any transfer order or explanation is appreciated. Confirmation by opposing counsel would also be greatly appreciated.

Kind Regards,
Megan Mason

Mr. Wehrman,

Parties,

I object to re-noticing in order to obtain a more favorable ruling. I ask that you appear before Judge Pinzur- Rosenberg as I am now doing. If you have come to the realization that your petition is without merit, I ask that you withdraw it. If you have come to the conclusion that it is not an emergency, having burdened many parties, including myself, I ask that you likewise withdraw it. It does not make sense to delay.

Kind Regards,
Megan Mason

Ms. Arroyo,

Just following up on today's appearance. I understand that Judge Ginsberg has her hands full today and seemed incapable of giving attention to this emergency matter before her. So I will present my emergency motion to dismiss tomorrow at 9am, which I assume is her public motion hearing time. Duly filed notice of motion and motion to dismiss will arrive shortly. She's also more than welcome to issue a written ruling on my motion to dismiss without hearing. She seemed to struggle with comprehending my verbally stated objection to Mr. Wehrman's judge shopping, but maybe she will understand the matters when put to her in writing.

Have a wonderful afternoon.

Kind Regards,
Megan Mason

Parties,

Attached is my Emergency Motion to Dismiss Mr. Matt's Emergency Petition for a Restraining Order. Barring a written ruling from the court before then, I intend to present it to Judge Ginsberg or any other Circuit Court Judge assigned to rule on emergency matters, tomorrow morning at 9am in Judge Ginsbert's Zoom Meeting.

Ms. Arroyo,

Sorry, I mistyped. I'm new to Judge Rosenberg. I think you can probably figure out who/what I meant. Just confirm that Judge Rosenberg receives her courtesy copy. I imagine a snow day will give her time to read the entire pleadings and issue an order. I don't think the internet's shutting down tomorrow, is it?

It's hard for me to imagine need for a hearing but I'm a patient, persistent woman when it comes to justice so I'm happy to appear before her or any other emergency judge in her stead if she feels it's necessary.

Stay safe, dear.

Kind Regards,
Megan Mason

Hi Ms. Arroyo,

Would you please advise when Judge Rosenberg hears motions? I was in her Zoom room between 9am and 10am this morning because I assumed it was her open motion period. But I was not let into the main Zoom room. Could you please provide her daily schedule/calendar?

Thanks,

Ms. Mason,

Judge Pinzur-Rosenberg is not your regularly assigned judge. She was the emergency duty judge last Thursday. There is a new emergency duty judge everyday. The procedure for emergency motions can be found here: <https://www.cookcountycourt.org/Portals/0/Domestic%20Relations%20Division/General%20Administrative%20Orders/22/2022%20D%2012-%20Emergency%20Motions.pdf>

Please let me know if you have any further questions. However, please note that I am not permitted to give you legal advice. I can only provide you with basic information.

No problem. I was just trying to be courteous to Judge Rosenberg so that she could correct her obvious mistake. I can understand why she would want to plausibly deny awareness of the facts in this case. It must be awful to work among scum bags. Please just pass along the motion and confirm that she has declined to correct her obvious error. Any other communications from you are unnecessary going forward.

Take Care,
