

hereto and incorporated herein by reference only as Exhibit "B."

5. Due to MEGAN MATT's behavior and serious endangerment of the minor children, this Court temporarily suspending her parenting time subject to supervised parenting time. See Exhibit C, Court Order of 9/13/22.
6. After continued violations of this Court's orders and further inappropriate contact with the children, this Court then ordered MEGAN MATT not to contact either of the children until a Rule 215 examination was completed. See Exhibit D, Court Order of 10/7/22.
7. As MEGAN MATT continued to violate this Court orders and further began to abuse PETER MATT and the children as defined by the Domestic Violence Act, this Court entered an order of protection, naming PETER MATT and the children as protected parties on January 6, 2023. See Exhibit E, Order of Protection of 1/6/23.
8. Pursuant to Article III, Paragraph A of the MSA:

Based upon the parties' equal parenting time and business interests, the issue of child support is reserved.
9. Pursuant to Article III, Paragraph D of the MSA:

The parties agree that each party is responsible for any extra-curricular activities in which the children are enrolled during their parenting time.
10. Pursuant to Article VIII, Paragraph F of the MSA:

The parties will split the child dependency exemptions with PETER MATT claiming Agnus each year and MEGAN MATT claiming Theodore each year.
11. Section 510(a) of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act provides that an order for child support may be modified upon a showing of a substantial change in circumstances. 750 ILCS 5/510(a)(1).

12. Since the entry of the Judgment, there has been a substantial change in circumstances, sufficient to warrant the award of child support and the contribution of child related expenses, and the modification of the tax benefits for the children.
13. Since the entry of the Judgment, the parties no longer share equal parenting time. In fact, MEGAN MATT presently has zero (0) overnights and no contact with the children.
14. Additionally, MEGAN MATT's monthly income has increased from approximately $6,667.00 as she listed in her June 29, 2019 financial affidavit to $9,465.00 as she listed in her Chapter 13 Statement of Current Monthly Income.
15. For the reasons set forth above, the parties' child support and other financial obligations should be modified to reflect the parties' current parenting time and income earning circumstances.

WHEREFORE, the Petitioner, PETER MATT, prays for the following relief:

- A. For the entry of an Order modifying the child support provisions of the Marital Settlement Agreement to require MEGAN MATT to pay child support;
- B. For the entry of an Order modifying the child expense provisions of the Marital Settlement Agreement to require MEGAN MATT to contribute to the children's extra-curricular activities;
- C. For the entry of an Order modifying the child tax provisions of the Marital Settlement Agreement to allow PETER MATT to claim the children as tax dependents; and,

D. For such other, further and different relief as this Court in its equity deems just and proper.

14.5 Firearms (available ONLY after actual notice to Respondent and/or a hearing with the Judge)

(R14.5) (Police Enforced)

The Court has examined Petitioner and any other witnesses under oath. The Court finds that:

- Respondent is a current or former intimate partner of the Petitioner and represents a threat to the physical safety of Petitioner or Petitioner's child.
- Respondent has received actual notice to appear in court and has had an opportunity to participate.
- This Order restrains Respondent from abusing, stalking, or threatening their intimate partner or children of the intimate partner, or engaging in other conduct that would place an intimate partner in reasonable fear of bodily injury to themselves or their children; AND the Court finds that:
 - Respondent represents a credible threat to the physical safety of Petitioner or Petitioner's child.
 - This Order prohibits the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against Petitioner or their children that could reasonably be expected to cause bodily injury.

5. Good cause exists to grant these remedies in this Order even though Respondent has not received notice Because:
- a. If Respondent were given prior or greater notice, it is likely that the harm that the remedies in this Order are intended to prevent would occur (R01, R03, R05, R08, R09, R11, R14, R15, and R17).
 - b. If Respondent were given prior or greater notice, the immediate danger of further abuse outweighs the hardships to Respondent of an Order granting exclusive possession of the residence (R02).
 - c. If Respondent were given prior or greater notice, it is likely that personal property would be disposed of improperly, or Petitioner has an immediate and pressing need for possession of that property.
6. Other Relevant Factors and Findings (check all that apply):
- An Order of Protection has previously been entered in this case or in another case in which any party, or a child of any party has been named as either Respondent or Petitioner.
 - An abused person is unable to bring this Petition on their own behalf due to age, health, disability, or inaccessibility.
 - The Petition has been filed on behalf of a high-risk adult with disabilities who has been abused, neglected, or exploited by a family or household member.
 - There is reason to believe Respondent is (check all that apply): armed dangerous suicidal
7. Civil Cases: In granting the remedies in this Order, the Court has considered all relevant factors, including: the nature, severity, pattern, and consequences of Respondent's past abuse, neglect, or exploitation of Petitioner or any family/household member, including Respondent's concealment of their location in order to evade service of notice, and the likelihood of danger of future abuse, neglect, or exploitation to Petitioner or any member of Petitioner's or Respondent's family or household; and the danger that any minor child(ren) will be abused, removed from the jurisdiction, improperly concealed within the State, or improperly separated from the child(ren)'s primary caretaker. The court finds that:
- The Court has jurisdiction over Petitioner, Respondent, minor children and other Protected Persons.
 - Venue is proper.
 - Respondent has abused Petitioner and/or the children identified as protected persons in Section 5 on page 4 and / or the Protected Persons listed on Page 1 of this Order.
 - The actions of Respondent will likely cause irreparable harm or continued abuse unless they are prohibited.
 - It is necessary to grant the requested relief in this Order to protect Petitioner or other abused persons.
8. Criminal Cases: The Court is entering this Order based on the following prima facie evidence:
- an information, complaint, indictment or delinquency petition, charging a crime of domestic violence or charging an attempt to commit a crime of domestic violence; OR
 - an adjudication of delinquency, a finding of guilt based upon a plea, or a finding of guilt after a trial for a crime of domestic battery; OR
 - any disposition order issued under Section 5-710 of the Juvenile Court Act of 1987, the imposition of supervision, conditional discharge, probation, periodic imprisonment, parole, aftercare release, or mandatory supervised release for a crime of domestic violence or an attempt to commit a crime of domestic violence, or imprisonment in conjunction with a bond forfeiture warrant; OR
 - the entry of a protective order in a separate civil case brought by Petitioner against Respondent.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS ORDER OF PROTECTION

TO BOTH PARTIES: This Order CANNOT BE CHANGED OR VACATED unless you have a hearing. To have a hearing, Petitioner or Respondent must do the following:

TO PARENTS OR GUARDIANS OF MINOR RESPONDENTS: The Court may hold you in contempt of court if a minor respondent in your care violates this Order and you have helped, encouraged, or directed the minor to do so.

NOTICE ABOUT ENFORCEMENT:

This Order of Protection is enforceable, even without registration, in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, tribal lands, and the U.S. Territories pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act (18 U.S.C. § 2265), provided notice this Order of Protection has been provided to the Respondent. Violating this Order of Protection may subject the Respondent to state and/or federal charges and punishment. 18 U.S.C. §§ 2261-2262. This Order is directed to the Respondent. Except under accountability circumstances, which should be assessed by the Attorney, Petitioner cannot be guilty of violation of an Order of Protection.

DEFINITION OF TERMS USED IN THIS ORDER

These definitions are incorporated in and made a part of the Order to which they are attached.

1. Abuse: "Abuse" means physical abuse, harassment, intimidation of a dependent, interference with personal liberty, or willful deprivation but does not include reasonable direction of a minor child by a parent or person in loco parentis.
2. Adult with Disabilities: "Adult with Disabilities" means an elder adult with disabilities or a high-risk adult with disabilities. A person may be an adult with

3. disabilities for purposes of this Act even though he or she has never been adjudicated an incompetent adult. However, no court proceeding may be initiated or continued on behalf of an adult with disabilities over that adult's objection, unless such proceeding is approved by his or her legal guardian, if any.
4. Elder Adult with Disabilities: "Elder adult with disabilities" means an adult prevented by advanced age from taking appropriate action to protect himself herself from abuse by a family or household member.
5. Exploitation: "Exploitation" means the illegal, including tortious, use of a high-risk adult with disabilities or of the assets or resources of a high-risk adult with disabilities. Exploitation includes, but is not limited to, the misappropriation of assets or resources of a high-risk adult with disabilities by undue influence, by breach of a fiduciary relationship, by fraud, deception, or extortion, or the use of such assets or resources in a manner contrary to law.
6. Family or Household Members: Include spouses, former spouses, parents, children, stepchildren and other persons related by blood or by present or marriage, persons who share or formerly shared a common dwelling, persons who have or allegedly have a child in common, persons who share or allegedly share a blood relationship through a child, persons who have or have had a dating or engagement relationship, persons with disabilities and their assistants, and caregivers as defined in Section 12-4.4a of the Criminal Code of 2012. For purposes of this paragraph, neither a casual acquaintanceship nor ordinary fraternization between two individuals in business or social contexts shall be deemed to constitute a dating relationship. In the case of a high-risk adult with disabilities, "family or household members" includes any person who has the responsibility for a high-risk adult as a result of a family relationship or who has assumed responsibility for all or a portion of the care of a high-risk adult with disabilities voluntarily, or by express or implied contract, or by court order.
7. Harassment: "Harassment" means knowing conduct which is not necessary to accomplish a purpose that is reasonable under the circumstances, would cause a reasonable person emotional distress, and does cause emotional distress to Petitioner. Unless the presumption is rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence, the following types of conduct shall be presumed to cause emotional distress:
- creating a disturbance at Petitioner's place of employment or school; or
 - repeatedly telephoning Petitioner's place of employment, home or residence; or
 - repeatedly following Petitioner about in a public place or places; or
 - repeatedly keeping Petitioner under surveillance by remaining present outside his or her home, school, place of employment, vehicle or other place occupied by Petitioner or by peering in Petitioner's windows; or
 - improperly concealing a minor child from Petitioner, repeatedly threatening to improperly remove a minor child of Petitioner's from the jurisdiction or from the physical care of Petitioner, repeatedly threatening to conceal a minor child from Petitioner, or making a single such threat following an actual or attempted improper removal or concealment, unless Respondent was fleeing an incident or pattern of domestic violence; or
 - threatening physical force, confinement, or restraint on one or more occasions.
8. High-risk Adult with Disabilities: "High-risk adult with disabilities" means a person aged 18 or over whose physical or mental disability impairs his or her ability to seek or obtain protection from abuse, neglect, or exploitation.
9. Interference with Personal Liberty: "Interference with personal liberty" means committing or threatening physical abuse, harassment, intimidation, or willful deprivation so as to compel another to engage in conduct from which she or he has a right to abstain or to refrain from conduct in which she or he has a right to engage.
10. Intimidation of a Dependent: "Intimidation of a dependent" means subjecting a person who is dependent because of age, health, or disability to participation in or the witnessing of: physical force against another or physical confinement or restraint of another which constitutes physical abuse as defined in this Act, regardless of whether the abused person is a family or household member.
11. Neglect: "Neglect" means the failure to exercise that degree of care toward a high-risk adult with disabilities which a reasonable person would exercise under the circumstances and includes but is not limited to:
- the failure to take reasonable steps to protect a high-risk adult with disabilities from acts of abuse; or
 - the repeated, careless imposition of unreasonable confinement; or
 - the failure to provide food, shelter, clothing, and personal hygiene to a high-risk adult with disabilities who requires such assistance; or
 - the failure to provide medical and rehabilitative care for the physical and mental health needs of a high-risk adult with disabilities; or
 - the failure to protect a high-risk adult with disabilities from health and safety hazards.
- Nothing in this definition shall be construed to impose a requirement that assistance be provided to a high-risk adult with disabilities over his or her objection in the absence of a court order, nor to create any new affirmative duty to provide support to a high-risk adult with disabilities.
12. Petitioner: "Petitioner" may mean not only any named petitioner for the order of protection and any named victim of abuse on whose behalf the petition is brought, but also any other person protected by this Act.
13. Physical Abuse: "Physical abuse" includes sexual abuse and means any of the following:
- knowing or reckless use of physical force, confinement or restraint; or
 - knowing, repeated and unnecessary sleep deprivation; or
 - knowing or reckless conduct which creates an immediate risk of physical harm.
14. Stalking: "Stalking" means knowingly and without lawful justification, on at least two (2) separate occasions, following another person or placing the person under surveillance or any combination thereof and:
- at any time transmitting a threat of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement or restraint, and the threat is directed towards that person or a family member of that person; or
 - placing that person in reasonable apprehension of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement or restraint; or
 - placing that person in reasonable apprehension that a family member will receive immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement, or restraint.
15. Willful Deprivation: "Willful deprivation" means willfully denying a person who because of age, health or disability requires medication, medical care, shelter, food, therapeutic device, or other physical assistance, and thereby exposing that person to the risk of physical, mental or emotional harm, except with regard to medical care or treatment when the dependent person has expressed an intent to forego such medical care or treatment. This paragraph does not create any new affirmative duty to provide support to dependent persons.
