IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS ORDER OF PROTECTION

TO BOTH PARTIES: This Order CANNOT BE CHANGED OR VACATED unless you have a court hearing and the judge orders it changed or vacated. To have a court hearing, Petitioner or Respondent must do the following:

- 1. File a written motion with the Circuit Clerk that lists the reasons why you want to change or vacate this Order,
- Get a time for the hearing from the Circuit Clerk; AND
- 3. Provide the other party with a copy of your motion and notify the other party in writing of the time and place of the hearing.

TO RESPONDENT: The Court has granted this Order. If you do not obey this Order, you could be arrested and charged with a crime.

- Petitioner cannot give you legal permission to change this Order. Only the Court can change this Order. If you have contact with Petitioner that is prohibited by this Order, you may be arrested.
- If you and Petitioner want to have contact with each other again, you must ask the Court to modify or dismiss this Order of Protection.
- Unless the Court changes or dismisses this Order, you can be arrested for violating this Order of Protection.

You may ask the Court to re-open this Order if you did not receive notice before this Order was signed. To do this you — must file a motion stating that (1) you did not receive prior notice, and (2) you have a valid defense to the Order, or that the Order, or any of its remedies, was not authorized under the law.

Enter the Case Number given by the Circuit Clerk: 2016 D 9534

Any knowing violation of an Order of Protection forbidding physical abuse, neglect, exploitation, harassment, intimidation, interference with personal liberty, willful deprivation, or entering or remaining present at specified places when any Protected Persons are present, or granting exclusive possession of the residence or household or granting a stay away order is a Class A misdemeanor. Grants of exclusive possession of the residence or household shall constitute notice forbidding trespass to land. Any knowing violation of an order awarding parental responsibility (formerly custody) or physical care of a child or prohibiting removal or concealment of a child may be a Class 4 felony. Any willful violation of any order is contempt of court. Any violation may result in fine or imprisonment.

TO PETITIONER: You cannot change the terms of this Order by your words or actions.

- If the Court has ordered no contact or given you sole possession of the residence, only the Court can allow the Respondent to contact you or return to the residence.
- If you want to have contact with the Respondent again, you MUST ask the Court, in a written motion to change or vacate this Order of Protection.
- You cannot be charged with a violation of this Order.
- If you wish to extend the Plenary Order, you must file with the clerk of the circuit court a Motion to Extend (including any modifications needed for your protection) at least 30 days prior to the expiration date of the present Order. The motion will be set for hearing. Notice must be given to the Respondent by first class mail; a certificate stating that notice was sent must be filed with the Circuit Clerk. You must be present at the Hearing on your motion.

TO PARENTS OR GUARDIANS OF MINOR RESPONDENTS: The Court may hold you in contempt of court if a minor respondent in your care violates this Order and you have helped, encouraged, or directed the minor to do so.

NOTICE ABOUT ENFORCEMENT:

This Order of Protection is enforceable, even without registration, in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, tribal lands, and the U.S. Territories pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act (18 U.S.C. § 2265), provided notice of this Order of Protection has been provided to the Respondent. Violating this Order of Protection may subject the Respondent to state and/or federal charges and punishment. 18 U.S.C. §§ 2261-2262. This Order is directed to the Respondent. Except under accountability circumstances, which should be assessed by the State's Attorney, Petitioner cannot be guilty of violation of an Order of Protection.

DEFINITION OF TERMS USED IN THIS ORDER

These definitions are incorporated in and made a part of the Order to which they are attached.

- 1. Abuse: "Abuse" means physical abuse, harassment, intimidation of a dependent, interference with personal liberty, or willful deprivation, but does not include reasonable direction of a minor child by a parent or person in loco parentis.
- 2. Adult with Disabilities: "Adult with Disabilities" means an elder adult with disabilities or a high-risk adult with disabilities. A person may be an adult with disabilities for purposes of this Act even though he or she has never been adjudicated an incompetent adult. However, no court proceeding may be initiated or continued on behalf of an adult with disabilities over that adult's objection, unless such proceeding is approved by his or her legal guardian, if any.
- Elder Adult with Disabilities: "Elder adult with disabilities" means an adult prevented by advanced age from taking appropriate action to protect himself or herself from abuse by a family or household member.
- 4. Exploitation: "Exploitation" means the illegal, including tortious, use of a high-risk adult with disabilities or of the assets or resources of a high-risk adult disabilities. Exploitation includes, but is not limited to, the misappropriation of assets or resources of a high-risk adult with disabilities by undue influence, by breach of a fiduciary relationship, by fraud, deception, or extortion, or the use of such assets or resources in a manner contrary to law.
- 5. Family or Household Members: Include spouses, former spouses, parents, children, stepchildren and other persons related by blood or by present or marriage, persons who share or formerly shared a common dwelling, persons who have or allegedly have a child in common, persons who share or share a blood relationship through a child, persons who have or have had a dating or engagement relationship, persons with disabilities and their personal assistants, and caregivers as defined in Section 12-4.4a of the Criminal Code of 2012. For purposes of this paragraph, neither a casual acquaintanceship nor ordinary fraternization between two individuals in business or social contexts shall be deemed to constitute a dating relationship. In the case of a high-risk adult with disabilities, "family or household members" includes any person who has the responsibility for a high-risk adult as a result of a family relationship or who has assumed responsibility for all or a portion of the care of a high-risk adult with disabilities voluntarily, or by express or implied contract, or by court order.
- 6. Harassment: "Harassment" means knowing conduct which is not necessary to accomplish a purpose that is reasonable under the circumstances, would cause a reasonable person emotional distress, and does cause emotional distress to Petitioner. Unless the presumption is rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence, the following types of conduct shall be presumed to cause emotional distress:
  - a. creating a disturbance at Petitioner's place of employment or school; or

Enter the Case Number given by the Circuit Clerk: 2016 D 9534

- b. repeatedly telephoning Petitioner's place of employment, home or residence; or
- c. repeatedly following Petitioner about in a public place or places; or
- d. repeatedly keeping Petitioner under surveillance by remaining present outside his or her home, school, place of employment, vehicle or other place occupied by Petitioner or by peering in Petitioner's windows; or
- e. improperly concealing a minor child from Petitioner, repeatedly threatening to improperly remove a minor child of Petitioner's from the jurisdiction or from the physical care of Petitioner, repeatedly threatening to conceal a minor child from Petitioner, or making a single such threat following an actual or attempted improper removal or concealment, unless Respondent was fleeing an incident or pattern of domestic violence, or
- threatening physical force, confinement or restraint on one or more occasions.
- 7. High-risk Adult with Disabilities: "High-risk adult with disabilities" means a person aged 18 or over whose physical or mental disability impairs his or her ability to seek or obtain protection from abuse, neglect, or exploitation.
- 8. Interference with Personal Liberty: "Interference with personal liberty" means committing or threatening physical abuse, harassment, intimidation or deprivation so as to compel another to engage in conduct from which they have a right to abstain or to refrain from conduct in which they have a right to engage.
- 9. Intimidation of a Dependent: "Intimidation of a dependent" means subjecting a person who is dependent because of age, health or disability to participation in or the witnessing of: physical force against another or physical confinement or restraint of another, which constitutes physical abuse as defined in this Act, regardless of whether the abused person is a family or household member.
- 10. Neglect: "Neglect" means the failure to exercise that degree of care toward a high-risk adult with disabilities which a reasonable person would exercise under the circumstances and includes but is not limited to:
  - a. the failure to take reasonable steps to protect a high-risk adult with disabilities from acts of abuse; or
  - b. the repeated, careless imposition of unreasonable confinement; or
  - c. the failure to provide food, shelter, clothing, and personal hygiene to a high-risk adult with disabilities who requires such assistance; or
  - d. the failure to provide medical and rehabilitative care for the physical and mental health needs of a high-risk adult with disabilities; or
  - e. the failure to protect a high-risk adult with disabilities from health and safety hazards.

Nothing in this definition shall be construed to impose a requirement that assistance be provided to a high-risk adult with disabilities over his or her objection in the absence of a court order, nor to create any new affirmative duty to provide support to a high-risk adult with disabilities.

- 11. Petitioner: "Petitioner" may mean not only any named petitioner for the order of protection and any named victim of abuse on whose behalf the petition is brought, but also any other person protected by this Act.
- 12. Physical Abuse: "Physical abuse" includes sexual abuse and means any of the following:
  - a. knowing or reckless use of physical force, confinement or restraint; or
  - b. knowing, repeated and unnecessary sleep deprivation; or
  - c. knowing or reckless conduct which creates an immediate risk of physical harm,
- 13. Stalking: "Stalking" means knowingly and without lawful justification, on at least two (2) separate occasions, following another person or placing the person under surveillance or any combination thereof and:
  - a. at any time transmitting a threat of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement or restraint, and the threat is directed towards that person or a family member of that person; or
  - b. placing that person in reasonable apprehension of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement or restraint; or
  - placing that person in reasonable apprehension that a family member will receive immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement, or
- 14. Willful Deprivation: "Willful deprivation" means willfully denying a person who because of age, health or disability requires medication, medical care, shelter, food, therapeutic device, or other physical assistance, and thereby exposing that person to the risk of physical, mental or emotional harm, except with regard to medical care or treatment when the dependent person has expressed an intent to forego such medical care or treatment. This paragraph does not create any new affirmative duty to provide support to dependent persons.
